Do These Challenges Sound Familiar?

- Are projects consistently off schedule, lack budget transparency, or misaligned with mission priorities?
- Is your agency struggling to balance scope, time, and cost across competing initiatives?
- Do you have visibility into how each investment contributes to your strategic goals?

Our Vision: From Projects to Portfolios

- We provide enterprise visibility, enabling organizations to see the entire picture, connecting project execution, program alignment, portfolio strategy, and automating processes
- We unify IT portfolios across business units for transparency and control
- We align program goals with enterprise strategy to drive outcomes and outputs
- We provide visibility into risk, value, and performance across your investments

Why Choose Blackbraid Management

- Decades of experience leading federal IT modernization and infrastructure portfolios
- Proven success bringing transparency and strategic alignment to agency projects
- Demonstrated ability to use AI and technology to automate processes, reporting, and management
- Transparent, metrics-driven approach to IT governance and transformation
